Our base and basic information regarding your arrival in Athens, Alimos Marina.

The Marina

Alimos Marina, known also as Kalamaki Marina, is the largest marina in Greece, located hour away from Athens International Airport "Eleftherios Venizelos".

The marina can be accessed by taxi & public bus (X96) that departs every 20 minutes from the Airport at a €6/person cost. We can arrange for you our taxi drivers and private buses (if you are more than 4 persons). You can contact us to arrange it.

Facilities

Water & electricity on the pier are free of charge for the first and last day. Fuel is delivered at the pier by a fuel wagon.

Within the marina there are snack-bars, cafes, toilets and showers. Also you can find an ATM next to the marina offices.

There is a variety of restaurants, including Greek and Italian cuisine, on and around Poseidonos Avenue.

Additional extras to consider

We have available optional extras you may want to consider having with you during your vacation, such as wifi onboard, SUP, seadoo seascooters, canoe, underwater cameras and many others. Please ask one of our representatives to inform you regarding availability.

Base Details

Our base is located at the end of Pier 6 (end of cement pier where the floating pier starts). Pier 6 is located exactly opposite Dia Noche cafe (see diagram below). You will notice our flags and all of us, will be there to welcome you!

Provisioning

Whether there is no supermarket in the marina, there is one at a walking distance with questionable delivery times and a more expensive pick up, drop off, delivery free to your yacht, supermarket. Ice alcohol and snacks could also be bought from the fuel station at the entrance of the marina as it is open 24/7.

The Weather

The Saronic & Argolic Gulf are generally a protected sailing areas, with winds seldoms exceeding Force 2-3B out of NW to N. The weather is sunny and warm with very little rain, but some during spring and autumn.
